

Soumaya Museum

case study
By Margina Demmer

Location: Mexico City, Mexico

Architect: LAR + Fernando Romero

Owner: Carlos Slim Foundation

Year of completion: 2011

Climate: Oceanic Subtropical Highland Climate

Material of interest: Translucent Concrete

Application: Exterior

Properties of material: Translucent Concrete filters light and makes spaces feel light and open without sacrificing the material's structural integrity.

Sources:

www.l-a-r-fernandoromero.com/